EP We again call the attention of visitors to the Cemetery to the fact that the rules will be enforced on the Sabbath. Of late, persons have been trespassing on the grounds, and it will no longer be permitted.

MYSTICISM AFFAIR.—This morning a Michigan Lumberman was loading his cart with gravel at the River, between 4th and 5th st., he discovered a pile of clothing about 6 feet from the edge of the water, covered partly with a pile of stones. He immediately called and procured Conner Nauerth, when they found an entire suit of gentleman's clothes, consisting of a good black cloth coat with outside pockets, dark cassimere pant with stripes down the leg, linen shirt with figured bosom, red undershirt, and a black cloth cap, with patent leather foot piece—The clothes can be seen at Mr. Lawler's residence on 4th at the Levee.

CAN'T YOU FIND.—A friend of ours, a curiosity seeker, who has the odds and ends of a dozen or two "cabinets," informs us that he has been traversing the country for two or three weeks past in search of one individual who had said the fruit was frozen; or who had given information to the papers that the fruit was chilled to death and was all falling from the trees! Up to quarter past 9 o'clock last evening he was unsuccessful. Every body he has met said they were sure all along that the frost had not damaged the fruit, and would not! Our curiosity friend could not find any body who had predicted that the wheat crop would be a failure, although he went four or three men who felt sure that the rust would greatly injure the wheat!

This investigating gentleman might have been better engaged we think; yet it was his fancy to make the search, and as he possesses the physical strength necessary to the task, and is able in a pecuniary way to indulge his fancies, without at all neglecting the interests of creditors, we conclude that it is his business.

WONDERFUL CHILD.—We learn that Miss Ternesse Olin—a girl about thirteen years of age, who is said to have been endowed from her birth with supernatural gifts to the extent that she is the wonder of all who have seen and heard her—will be in Dayton next week, and give our citizens the benefit of her powers.
She claims to give information of absent or departed friends, also of lost money, and many other astonishing things. She prescribes for diseases, and claims to heal the sick and afflicted.
And then, she also professes to point out to the young who they will have for partners in life! Just think of that! All this will transpire next week.

FENCING AND GYMNASIUM.—Capt. De Reu has leased a house in our city, and intending to make it his home, has rented a room and will, in a few days, open a school for the purpose of teaching youths under the age of 15 years, the elements of Fencing and Gymnastics. His Gymnasium will be taught on the plan of Prof.
Links, of Stockholm. His school will be open three days in the week, commencing at half past 5 o'clock, after the schools are out, and continuing until half past 6. He will give 24 lessons for $5. Persons who desire to place their boys under the tuition of Capt. De Reu are requested to apply soon. We would advise our readers to avail themselves of a rare opportunity to give their boys a thorough gymnastic training, and a scientific use of weapons.

EP Mr. Davis has now got clear of his Eastern stock, and will hereafter devote his attention entirely to custom work. Having been in the business for many years, he feels confident that he can please the tastes of the citizens of Dayton in regard to work of every description, even the most fastidious tastes. He will make his individual business to please and satisfy all who favor him with a call. Using nothing but the best stock, and employing none but thorough workmen he cannot help but sell the people who desire first class work, at low prices. He now invites the public to call at his store, 79, Jefferson street.

MYSTICISM AFFAIR.—It is expected that the New Bridge will be so far completed that foot passengers will be enabled to cross over it within two weeks. The work on this important structure has been hurried as fast as it could be and is done well. The contractors deserve, and they receive, the thanks of this community. It is said that it will be, when completed, one of the best bridges on the Miami River from source to mouth.

Business in the Burg is said to be unusually brisk, notwithstanding the farming community has been busily engaged in putting in corn. The people are again pouring into town, and the stores and shops are again driving more than their usual amount of trade this season of the year.

The crops in the neighborhood of the Burg are extra good, and the prospect for fruit has not been as good for several years. The tobacco growers in the vicinity are "as busy as niggers," as the chances for getting in the crop are good. A great deal of tobacco will be grown in the neighborhood this season.

While we are about the Burg, we will relate a little personal item for the encouragement of young men everywhere, who claim that the times are hard, and that they find it difficult to "make work." A young old man, named Joseph Fick, aged 74 years, some time ago removed from the Burg to the State of Illinois.
He was a blacksmith by trade, and a good workman; and as he is, he will work down a good many young men. A few weeks ago a gentleman in Mississippi, who wanted a steady, active man in his shop, wrote to Fick, offering him a "berth" at $10 per week, and urging him to accept it! Times being a little dull in Illinois, and $10 cash per week being an inducement, Mr. F. returned, and is now busily engaged at blacksmithing in the Burg.
We saw a young man this morning begging money to take him a few miles by Railway, saying that he was unable to procure work!— There is plenty of work to do in and about the Burg, and it can be had for the asking. Applicants are expected to earn their wages, however.

A COUNTRYMAN.—On Thursday last a man came to the Phillips House and registered his name as Wm. R. Jones. Thinking that the man did not intend to pay his fare, the Proprietor of the Phillips House this morning asked him to settle. He stated that he was not just then prepared to do so, but would at dinner time.
Mr. Hubbell insisted, and the man walked off to his room, the landlord following. He then confessed that he had no money, and was ushered out of the hotel in short order, when he disappeared.

Some time after he left, a small "diary" was found behind the sofa, where it must have been put this morning, and in the cover was found a large number of figures—3's, 3's, 5's, &c.— taken from genuine bank bills, for the purpose of raising notes of small denomination to 10's, 20's, 30's, 50's, &c. The lining of the diary is crumpled full of the corners and ends of bills—In the book is a memorandum of work done by the long; and the names of several of the Cincinnati hotels, where, we presume, he played the sponge game as he did here. The man is doubtless a counterfeiter, as he left the evidences behind him.

FIRE JEWELRY, WATCHES, ETC.—Our fellow townsman, Mr. Sherwood, of Clegg's Building, 3d street, we observed yesterday, has received the largest, most elegant, and choice styles of jewelry ever before brought to Dayton. His assortment embraces every thing in the line that is desirable, or that the most fastidious could possibly wish. We could not find of going into a detailed description of the various brilliant gems which almost dazzle the eye of the beholder, for it would take more than a volume of space; it is enough to say that in the material, design and artifice, they are more like the work of genius than any thing we can compare them to. These articles are warranted good; and if they are not as represented, Mr.
Sherwood will always be found in his store to make them good, and to apologize for being himself imposed on by the manufacturers for the first time! Thus far about the magnificent jewelry. Mr. S. has, also, received a number of fine gold watches, that are valuable alike for the fine metal they are made of, and the correct time they will keep. All he has he warrants.
Ladies and gentlemen will, we hope, call and examine his beautiful and valuable goods.

WE learn that Mr. Louis Motter had a gold watch stolen from his house a few evening's ago. A negro was seen in the vicinity of the house a few minutes prior to missing the watch. The time piece had a peculiar value attached to it; it was a present to Mr. M. from an officer while in the ranks in Mexico, and was, as a matter of course, priceless to the owner. It has not yet been recovered, but will probably come to light. We hope so.

EP We are pleased to inform our readers that Dr. Chamberlin, the celebrated Eclectic, has arrived in Dayton, and taken rooms at 356, Third st. Dr. C. brings with him from Cincinnati, and Hamilton, (where he has been operating the last six months,) the most emphatic recommendations from the highest and most unimpeachable sources, as to his ability in curing Paralysis, Consumption, Deafness, Dyspepsia, and other equally obstinate maladies. The diseased should not fail to consult Dr. Chamberlin.

WE learn from the Firemen's Gazette that the Sixes are making extensive preparations for their picnic which is to come off on Friday, the 3d of June. They have engaged Mr. James Davis' collision band for the occasion, and expect to have a good time.
The place of holding it is Sutherland Falls, ten miles up the Dayton & Michigan Railroad. Arrangements have been made with the accommodating managers of that road, to carry those wishing to attend, at 50 cents a couple for round trip. Single tickets 25 cents.
All are invited.

Our German township friends are learning, going into tobacco growing rather more extensively this year than ever before, although they have been noted for their fine tobacco crops for several years past. Mr. H. S. Gunkel-er has erected a tobacco warehouse in Gunkeltown, and will hereafter afford all the conveniences desired by tobacco raisers in the way of storing their crops. He will give the highest market price for the "weed" delivered at his warehouse, or he will ship it, as desired.— Those having crops to dispose of would find it to their advantage to address him at Gunkeltown.

A PLEASANT RESORT.—One of the most pleasant resorts in this vicinity, is the Pleasure Garden of Mr. Jacob Kuntz, in Dayton View, a short distance south of the New Bridge. It is only a few minutes' walk from the Court House, and when the visitor gets there, he will find a cool, pleasant place, with a supply of pure wine, lager, &c.; and then he has on his grounds, a very gymnasium, where exercise of the right kind can be taken. Go to Kuntz's and pass a pleasant hour.

"WELL, WHAT OF IT?"—The war news, "four days later," is not so formidable as it was first days prior to the sailing of the last Steamer.
The conduct of the Austrian troops in Italy is inexplicable to the London Times!— We do not wonder; and the people on this side of the water share largely in the Times' incredulity! But how will we account for it?— We confess to being beaten; and we have a large shadow to shelter us. We did think that the Times had something to build its huge columns after columns of war talk upon. Surely "inexplicable," this European War.

We fall back upon our declaration, made a few days ago—that the speculators on both sides of the ocean can tell us something about it; and we call upon them, in the name of a large army of consumers, to give us light.— When we ask those whom we think ought to be posted on the perspective, drawing, shading and coloring of the war news—especially that portion of the same which detailed the crisis when the blow was pending!—they answer, "Well, what of it?" This is the War News.

EP The O. S. M. passed through the streets of Hamilton the other night. It is said to have been the most attractive display ever attempted there. The people from the country were attracted by the announcement of such an event, came into the city in large numbers; and visitors and citizens thronged the streets during the entire march of the "Sons." Mentor's band was in attendance. The "Sons" are highly popular in Hamilton, as, indeed, they are everywhere else. They are a "good institution."

EP We call the particular attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Columbus Coal Company. Their office will be opened on the 1st of June. Those who desire to lay in coal for next winter will have large induc-ments offered.

EP We notice by the Springfield papers that Capt. De Reu is succeeding in getting up a class in that city. The Springfield people will find the Captain a gentleman in every respect, and the best advertisement they ever saw.
He has not a clever man anywhere.

EP Those clever men and first class musicians, who comprise the Germantown Band, will accompany the Millers, Distillers and Shippers on their annual excursion to Sandusky, and the Islands in the Lake. They will contribute to add considerably to the pleasure of the jaunt.

EP The Universalist Sabbath School have a picnic today; and a portion of the S. E.
School are in line on the State Fair grounds.
We hear of other parties, but are not informed of their destination.

EP The "Children's Friend" is the title of a new little paper published semi-monthly in this city by Vannoy & Sweeney. The "Friend" is filled with matter interesting and instructive to children, and is appropriately illustrated with wood cuts. It is afforded at the low price of 25c per year, for single copy.

EP We notice that our old friend Dr. Halli-man, has again taken his former office on Third street, and we are pleased to learn is doing a fine business. He is a gentleman and a skillful physician, and we wish him success.

EP The unknown friend who sends us selections from his ancient poems, will please hereafter use modern paper in transcribing them for us.
Previously, thus far his "extracts" have been acceptable, and baring the paper, we would be pleased to have them continue.

EP Great preparations are being made for the Pic Nic of the Independents, at Higgins Station, on next Thursday. Jim Davis' band is engaged to entertain the day. Nearly every one we meet asks "going to the Independence" Pic Nic?" Of course.

EP Two men were executed in Pittsburg yesterday. The capital punishment-law is more vigorously enforced in Pennsylvania and in all the Eastern States than in Ohio, where of late years, it seems almost a dead letter.

EP The steamer Martha Putnam, recently sunk in the Ohio, opposite New Albany, is about again. She was raised yesterday.

EP The Philadelphia Press notices the Ohio White Sulphur Springs as "a new and ambitious claimant for the patronage of the watering place loving public."

CAROL COUNTY (MS.) JAIL BRENT.—On Saturday night last the jail of that county accidentally took fire and was burnt to the ground.
Three white men were turned loose on their parole of honor—two of them, who would have been discharged by the court, ran away; the third who was to go to the Penitentiary, stayed and worked at the fire!

EP The London papers think the Austrians are waiting for "good weather" before they commence the campaign actively in Sardinia.
It is evident that there are no Napoleons in the Austrian army. Military commanders who never do anything except in "good weather" never accomplish anything. If they wait for good weather they will probably get a "good thrashing."

A western poet has just gotten off the following, and retired to private life: I wood out die in spring time, I was fringed begin to grow, I was kabage plant are shuttin' up, noe I wood out die in spring time.

Rater Bridget, with the mistress' favorite poodle wringing wet.
"How is this, Bridget? How came Fido so very wet?"
"An' faith, mas' an' it was little Tommy that had the little basket lashed to the end of a pole, and was washing the windows with him."

DEATH OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—One of the best evidences of the decay of the Republican party is the fact that the New York Tribune is willing to take any man, north or south, to beat the Democracy.— Immediately previous to the decay of the Whig party, the Tribune advocated the same policy. Whenever party leaders begin to abandon the principles of their party or organization, and seek after men with whom they can succeed in acquiring power, we would not give much for their chances of success.

The Tribune would rather have Seward or Chase, but is willing to take Blaine, of Virginia, provided the "opposition" can succeed to pay. The ladies would tell him that they would take the money. He would hand them a ten-dollar counterfeit bill, and they would hand him the balance in good money.

ington's administration, brought $57.

thus made orphans.
